Step aboard the famous Waverley this summer

Waverley at Dunoon in 1947

Paddle Steamer Waverley will return to service this summer and celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of her maiden voyage which took place on June 16, 1947.

Aboard Waverley you can experience a 'touch of nostalgia' as you step back in time aboard the last seagoing paddle steamer in the World. Marvel at the magnificent triple expansion steam engine driving the ship's massive paddles, dine in the self-service restaurant, enjoy a refreshment in one of the period lounges, buy an exclusive souvenir at the on-board shop or simply enjoy the passing scenery aboard this famous steamship.

Waverley's triple expansion steam engine - open to view

Waverley offers day, afternoon and evening cruises in several areas around the UK, with the main summer season on her home waters on the stunning Firth of Clyde which begins on June 16 with a special sailing following the route of her maiden voyage up Loch Long to Arrochar.

Look out for the 2022 timetables being published as Waverley makes her welcomed return to cruising the Western Isles, Bristol Channel, South Coast and Thames estuary.

Diamond Jubilee Appeal

Over £130,000 has now been donated towards Waverley's 75th Anniversary Appeal which is aiming to raise £150,000 towards the cost of maintenance work ahead of the 2022 season.

All donations small or large will be gratefully received and together we can make Waverley's Diamond Jubilee an anniversary to remember. Any individual supporter who makes a donation of £75 or more towards the 75th Anniversary Appeal will receive a unique Waverley coaster in thanks.

New Book Published in Support of Waverley - "Jeanie Deans"

Jeanie Deans was a well known and popular Clyde paddle steamer of her age. She was a real flyer with a visible link to paddle steamers of the previous century. Jeanie was Waverley's elder sister but didn't enjoy the longevity of operational preservation that has been afforded the post war steamer.

In support of Waverley ALL monies from the sale of this new, high quality, hardback book will go directly to Waverley's cause. By purchasing a copy you will support Waverley in her Diamond Jubilee year. Order your copy now directly from Waverley Excursions online or by calling 0141 243 2224 (£29 with P&P).
